City Will Sell Short Term Notes

The city commission at the meeting Tuesday afternoon passed an ordinance on first reading, providing that the city may sell short term notes up to $500,000, in anticipation of tax collections.

The city faces a lean period in finances between January and September each year. Taxes begin coming in during the latter month. It is probable that the city will sell enough to meet its anticipated needs at an early date.

Under the contract the city has with the Union and Planters Bank and Trust company, the bank will buy all its short term notes at an interest rate of 3.65 per cent. At the same time the bank pays the city 4 per cent on all balances. There is always a goodly balance, made up of special funds which the city may not use for general purposes.

Even the funds secured through sale of the notes will draw 4 per cent when deposited to the credit of the city.

Strangler Lewis Gets Big Reception In Home Town

SAN JOSE, Cal., Dec. 22.—Ed "Strangler" Lewis, world's champion heavyweight wrestler, was given a home-coming reception here on his arrival from New York, where he last week took the championship from Joe Stecher. He is San Jose's first world's champion, and the citizens made much of the occasion. Lewis was presented with a handsome silver cup and was induced to make an address of acceptance. After admitting "that as an orator" he was "a good wrestler" Lewis told the crowd which gathered to do him honor that he valued the esteem of his townsmen more than the championship.
